Supreme Judicial Court.

October Term, 1887.

The case of H. G. Brown administrator of the estate of David F. Brown of Mexico vs. Lewis H. Holt was on trial as we went to press last week. The jury returned a verdict Friday afternoon for the plaintiff of $2300, with the finding that David F. Brown was incompetent at the time the contract was made and that time he was unduly influenced by defendants. Exceptions were filed by defendants' counsel and the case goes to the Law Court.

The criminal docket was reached Friday and the case of the State vs. Daniel A. Coffin upon indictment for being a seller of intoxicating liquors was tried. County Attorney James appeared for the prosecution and James S. Wright and Fred S. Kimball for the defense. The defendant is the liquor agent at Milton Plantation. The jury stood out Saturday forenoon and failed to agree on a verdict.

Daniel A. Coffin was arraigned on indictment for maintaining nuisance, pleaded guilty and was fined one hundred dollars and costs.

George J. Little was arraigned on indictment as common seller of intoxicating liquors, pleaded guilty, fined one hundred dollars and costs. Mr. Little's defense was that the old law, no saving having proven since the law took effect.

Inhabitants of Paris, petitioners for review, vs. Edward C. Slattery. This was a hearing before Judge Virginia on a petition for review of the case Slattery vs. Paris tried Oct. 1887, in which Slattery recovered a verdict of $1000. After a brief hearing Judge Virginia refused to grant the petition of the town.

In the case of Brown vs. Holt, that occupied the court for three days, resulted in a verdict of $2300 for the plaintiff, it is stated that one of the jury is related to a party in the case, and a new trial is talked of. The juryman was not aware of the fact and had never seen the parties in the case.

The following divorces have been granted in addition to those already published in the Advertiser:
